

R6 Representative - Debbie Hollen

Debbie Hollen grew up in Anchorage Alaska and attended Humboldt State University in Northern California where she earned a bachelor's degree in freshwater fisheries management.

She retired from the Forest Service in 2023 after a 35-year federal career that included positions with Bonneville Power, Bureau of Land Management and the Forest Service in R6.

She held Forest Service positions in Regions 6 and 10 at the Ranger District, National Forest, Regional and Washington Office level including fisheries biologist, staff officer, assistant director, regional director and deputy regional forester.

She also served in multiple acting assignments as deputy forest supervisor, forest supervisor, and most recently as an associate deputy chief for the National Forest System. She continues to advise and support current leaders in the Forest Service through an ACES agreement.

She currently lives in Portland, Oregon with her husband and a golden retriever.

