

Want to Put Your Experience to Work?

LOOK INTO THE USFS ACES PROGRAM TODAY!

Participation in the Agriculture Conservation Experienced Services Program (ACES) for the United States Forest Service (USFS) might be right for you. ACES enrollees have the opportunity to:

EARN AN INCOME

- Earn comparable GS wages for your services.
- Choose from full-time, part-time, or call-when-needed employment and other flexible work schedules.

APPLY YOUR SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE

- Work in fields such as road design and construction, silviculture, timber sale administration, realty and appraisal functions, Job Corps forestry, instruction, NEPA analysis and planning, and other positions.

MENTOR NEWER EMPLOYEES

- Share your agency knowledge to help build the next generation workforce.

CONTRIBUTE TO THE USFS MISSION

- Help the Forest Service accomplish its mission and serve others through diverse conservation projects.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

If you are 55 years of age or older and interested in helping the Forest Service accomplish its mission, or know someone who might qualify for the ACES program:

- Reach out to a local Forest Service office or USFS official to let them know about your interest in ACES. Encourage them to contact their Region or Station ACES Coordinator or National Coordinator at sm.fs.aces@usda.gov, or USFS staff can learn more at: <https://usdagcc.sharepoint.com/sites/fs-aqm-aces/>
- Contact the National Older Worker Career Center (NOWCC), a national nonprofit that administers the ACES program, to learn more. Email Becki Heath, Program Development Consultant, at bheath@nowcc.org, visit www.nowcc.org, or call NOWCC at (571) 451-0251.
